

Summer Sermon Series 2022

Congregational Choice

Once every few years, we ask the congregation of St Mary's to suggest sermon topics for the summer weeks.

This is 2022's batch – with preachers.

Sermons will be preached at 8.30am and 11am and will be on the website soon after preaching if you are not around on a particular Sunday.

Sunday 24th July
Praying for Healing

How do we pray for the healing of others with faith and realism?

Sunday 31st July
Aaron's Farewell

Aaron Kennedy preaches his final sermons today

Sunday 7th August
The Persecution of Christians

Christians are the most persecuted of all faiths. What can we do to respond?

Sunday 14th August
Forgive and Forget?

Easily said...but is it the right and Christian response to sin and the wounds we receive from others?

Sunday 21st August
Mixing Politics & Church: How to Do It

Should the Church hold government to account...and how?

Sunday 28th August
Joy and Gratitude in our Christian life

We often focus on need, suffering and how faith supports us? But what about the joys and positives of faith?

Sunday 4th September
The Ukraine conflict & the evil people do

People are inflicting cruelty and suffering in Ukraine, often calling themselves Christians at the same time. How can God allow this?
